About Me

I am a dedicated professional known for my strong work ethic and quick adaptability. As a hard worker, I thrive in fast-paced environments, consistently delivering results and exceeding expectations. With excellent communication skills, I effectively convey ideas and build rapport with colleagues, clients, and stakeholders. Furthermore, my experience as a team leader has honed my ability to motivate and guide others towards shared goals. I am driven to learn and grow, always seeking new opportunities to expand my skill set and contribute to the success of the team.

Project

Company Name - N & N IT SOLUTION (2021)

I made an "Online Daily Essentials Store" website in my 6th semester of BCA.

About this website - Usually, we need to go to the market or shop to buy groceries, it's a money & time-consuming process so we have the best solution for that problem which is an Online Grocery website. From this website, customers can buy fresh grocery and also, we provide high quality grocery for our customers. Also, the admin can manage the whole system with the general manager.
